Thank you for your letter.

Well, with Brenda and Sango being the way they are, I can draw them up in whatever I want, but I never know what to do when it comes to Tama and comical clothes... What should I wear?

After I go, I'll have to draw the wings on... I'll have to make it look like I'm wearing it. I'll have to make it look like I'm wearing it.

But you know Sango and Sango's hair don't you want?

Well, Tama's looking pretty good!

Well, my friends were saying earlier that "casual clothes don't fit Tama," so we were talking about what could be done to fix that. Anyway, I had him in stripes on the cover of volume 3.

Personality?

Whenever I can't figure out what to write in the afterword, I'm told to "draw the personality of the real Takahara." It's my personality coming across at least a tiny bit, right? Anyway, let me add to it.

Even though he's such a clumsy character, things get so loose and out of control without him. I guess that's what makes a more character the right character.

Now that I think about it, this is the first time that there was a chapter without Brenda in it.

Every time in a while someone is kind enough to say to me "Oh how to be an assistant?" I'm grateful for your generosity and kindness, but I simply can't make you do as several hearts in your life as please right in your heart. But thank you
